Hale Wants to Determine Future Course of Party.

New York, July 29 .- Acting Chairnan Matthew Haie, of the Progressive national executive committee, has is ed a call for a conference of anti-Hughes Bull Moosers at Indianapolis next Thursday. He has asked every Bull Mooser of influence who repudiates the attempt of George W. Perkins and others to "deliver the Progressive party to the Republican party" to join with him in determining:

follow Mr. Perkins into the Hughes camp.

Mr. Colby issued a statement explaining the purpose of the Indianapolis conference. He said:

"The conference will decide as to the call of a convention for the completion of the national ticket. While I shall seek to be guided by the prevalent opinion of my party associates, my present judgment is against the advisability of placing a ticket in the field in this campaign. The blows which the party has sustained are too many and too grievous to admit of reforming our lines and taking an effective part as an organization in this election.

The Indianapolis conference is intended to take the piace of the Chicago conference called by John M. Parker for August 5.
